Politics & Legislation

by John Faro, Political Junkie

The New Hampshire Legislature has passed their version of “Constitutional Carry” and the bill (SB116) has been sent to the governor’s office. Unfortunately, Governor Hassan has publicly stated several times that she will veto this legislation.

According to FBI crime statistics, Constitutional Carry in the state of Vermont and several other states has lowered the crime rates in these states. When law-abiding citizens carry legally concealed firearms, our communities are statistically safer than those communities that restrict the use of legally owned firearms.

Criminals do not get their firearms from the local gun shop or legal gun shows. They do not subject themselves to NIC’s checks before trying to obtain a firearm. “Gun Free Zones” are actually FREE FIRE ZONES for criminals. If you can pass a NIC’s check and legally purchase a firearm, why do you need permission from some local authority to exercise a Constitutional right?

While New Hampshire has had licensed concealed carry for 92 years, recent court cases have changed our state’s practice of allowing anyone who may legally own a firearm to carry one concealed. SB116 will fix this.

As this article is being written, our illustrious governor has not signed, nor has she vetoed, this legislation. I urge you to contact the governor by phone, email, or US Mail as soon as possible.

Enjoy the warm weather. After this last winter I’m not sure how long our summer is going to last. Stay vigilant - we are dealing with politicians.
