SOCIALISM

Politics & Legislation

by John Faro, Political Junkie

Legislation that would make law enforcement, the National Guard, or security officers subject to civil penalties and lawsuits for confiscating firearms, ammunition, or firearms accessories was vetoed by Governor Hassan. "There is no need for the bill because remedies are currently in law, including compensation to the person" Gov. Hassan stated. People who have been accused of a crime have had their firearms confiscated. If they have been acquitted of any crime or the charges have been dropped for lack of evidence it has taken months, if not years, and thousands of dollars in legal fees to get their firearms returned to them. This is what our governor considers fair and equitable treatment for the firearm owning public.

Earlier in the month of May, Governor Hassan also vetoed "Constitutional Carry", passed by the House and Senate for the second time in two years. This is information you should keep in mind when the November elections come around. Do we want "Maggie" representing us in the US Senate? Her record as Governor speaks volumes to the firearm owning community.

The tragedy perpetrated by a madman at an Orlando, Florida nightclub has the Democrat anti-gun zealots foaming at the mouth. They are screaming for the blood of innocent firearm owners and users. Once again they are blaming an inanimate object for the actions of a mentally unbalanced individual. I have read some comments from Democrat legislators castigating the NRA for this Florida incident.

President Obama, Hillary Clinton and our own Senator Shaheen want to reinstate the failed so called "Assault Weapons" ban. These are the same people who cannot or will not recognize the differences of automatic and semi-automatic firearms. Once again they have turned a tragedy into a political football. They will not acknowledge the fact that "gun free zones" are actually killing zones for those who ignore the law. So once again they proclaim that passing more laws that criminals will not comply with will keep us safe. The logic of this political position still eludes me as it has for many years.

As this article is being written the battle in Congress rages on. There has been little discussion if any at all about the root cause of incidents like Orlando. Why are people born and raised in America perpetrating these acts of violence and murder? This subject seems to be of little interest to our Democrat legislators but they are convinced that AR-15s and large capacity magazines are the cause of these horrendous acts. With thinkers like these folks in the halls of Congress we are challenged to be eternally vigilant or lose our Constitutional right to keep and bear arms. When we have to face criminal activity as an unarmed population it will be too late to defend ourselves and our families with rhetoric and blustering words and phrases.

Stand up to this insanity now or we will all suffer the consequences a lot sooner than any of us ever envisioned. Eternal vigilance is our only course of action in our daily lives and in the voting booth when election time rolls around again.
